PHOENIX, Oct. 24, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Troxell, a national leader in education technology and collaboration solutions for more than 60 years, is proud to announce it has been awarded the State of Massachusetts OFF40 Statewide Contract. As one of multiple vendors awarded the contract, Troxell participated in the competitive bid process and was granted the award based on successful evaluations of required performance and provider criteria.

Contract number OFF40, awarded by the State of Massachusetts, Boston, MA, is effective from September 18, 2015 through October 31, 2018. On the contract, Troxell represents multiple manufacturers for products and services, offering a wide range of discounts. The contract includes products in various categories:

- Audio Equipment
- Video Equipment
- Presentation Equipment
- Photographic Equipment
- Peripherals, Supplies, Accessories

"We are pleased to be participating in the State of Massachusetts OFF40 Statewide Contract," said Dottie Stewart, Regional Vice President of Sales - Central and Northeast. "On this contract, we work with public school districts, charter schools, libraries, and public institutions of higher education to upgrade their current technology, helping them to transform the classroom learning experience."

Through the State of Massachusetts' Operational Services Division, Troxell participated in a comprehensive Request for Proposal (RFP) competitive solicitation of Closed Bids. Operational Services Division employs industry best practices, processes and procedures to solicit quotes from prospective vendors in response to Closed Bids that have been issued.

Troxell continues to participate in multiple national, regional, state and local contracts, helping educational institutions pay less for products and reduce administrative costs in order to overcome the challenges of tight and diminishing budgets.
