PHOENIX, Sept. 6, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Troxell, a national leader in education technology and collaboration solutions for more than 60 years, is happy to announce Jennifer White as the new Account Executive for the East Tennessee Territory. She will work closely with school districts in her area to improve the quality of education by fulfilling their education technology needs and driving their new initiatives.

"I know the challenges Tech Directors face when working with a limited budget and high-tech goals. My job is to help them make smart decisions for their school districts by providing relevant state-of-the-art classroom technology options for the best price possible," said Jennifer White. "I want to be the one stop, one call resource for my school districts, making their jobs easier for them. My goal is to provide the best customer service and technology solutions, helping them meet their goals to be the best in Tennessee."

"Jennifer is very enthusiastic and goal-oriented," said Randy Duet-Champagne, Regional Vice President of Troxell's Southeast Territory. "Her experience in technology roles in education is the perfect fit for her new role at Troxell. We are excited to have her on our team, and I am confident she will have a great impact in the East Tennessee area."

Jennifer White was born and raised in Western North Carolina, which is where she now lives with her husband and son. Before joining Troxell, Jennifer was the Technology Director for Cherokee County Schools for 3 years, and a Tech III for 5 years prior to becoming Director.

You may contact Jennifer White at her office phone: 865-229-4217, her mobile phone: 865-603-5593, and her email jennifer.white@trox.com.
