PHOENIX, Sept. 28, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Troxell, a national leader in education technology and collaboration solutions for more than 60 years, is happy to announce Jenő Drăganescu as the new Account Executive for the South Michigan Territory. He will work closely with school districts in his area as they look for new education technology tools for the classroom.

"My goal is to make technology accessible to all students in Michigan," said Jenő Drăganescu. "I want to give every student an equal opportunity to learn, grow, and prosper. I have made it my mission to improve schools and learning through technology one school at a time; it's why I'm here!"

Dottie Stewart, Troxell's Regional Vice President for the Central and Northeast territories, is very excited to welcome Jenő Drăganescu to the Troxell team. She noted, "Jenő brings a great enthusiasm for technology and innovation that will help our customers. We look forward to the future as he continues to build strong relationships with customers in the South Michigan territory."

Jenő Drăganescu is recent graduate from Michigan State University. While he was a student at MSU, he interned for a technology reseller in their Campus intern program for nearly 2 years. Jenő found out very quickly that being able to provide technology and improve the campus was very satisfying. He realized that continuing to make a difference in educational spaces through technology on a grander scale was something he wanted to do. Since starting with Troxell, he has made it his mission to improve schools and learning through technology one school at a time.

You may contact Jenő Drăganescu at his office phone: 586-532-1219, his mobile phone: 734-787-7229, and his email address: jeno.draganescu@trox.com.
